

KOYAMA Masao

Head of Carbon Dioxide Removal, Carbon Management Office, Mitsubishi Corporation

Nationality

Japanese

Career History

After joining Mitsubishi Corporation in 2010, he was in charge of mineral resource business for 8 years, and now leading Carbon Dioxide Removal business development. He is a steering committee member of CCS+ Initiative which is a global, multi-stakeholder alliance to develop carbon credit methodology for CCUS and Carbon Dioxide Removal projects. He is also a member of “Study Group on Preparation of Operational Environment to Ensure Proper Use of Carbon Credits toward Realizing Carbon Neutrality” hosted by Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry of Japanese Government.

Areas of expertise

Carbon Dioxide Removal, Carbon Credit